BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

Requests with reference to this office No. FL 1699/G.F. 286-10-368/12-9-1913 that instructions may be issued as regards levying interest from ex-agent T. Srinivasa Rao of Tirumakudlu Village on the amount found due from him in settlement of his accounts.

NOTES AND ORDERS.

S

1 In his letter No. 2128/3-11-1911 the Dy Commr reported that Ex-Agent T. Srinivasa Rao on the one hand and Venkata Rao & Krishna Rao on the other of the 3rd branch had come to an understanding and agreed that a sum of Rs 1000 may be taken as the aggregate of short credits and unauthorized charges &c., and that T. Srinivasa Rao had agreed to make good this amount from his share of the income of the Tirumakalli Village. The Dy Commr recommended that this arrangement may be sanctioned. It was accordingly sanctioned in G.O. No. 4996-9/G.J. 286-10-3 & 18.5.1912.

2 In the meanwhile the Dy Commr had reported in his letter No. 623 & 23.2.1912 that the Ex-Agent Srinivasa Rao had agreed to pay interest at 15% on the amount found due by him. No specific orders were asked on the point nor were any passed on it. The point dealt with in para 2 of the letter being important and connected with the prayer of M. K. Krishna Rao was taken up and dealt with at length

3 In November 1912 M. Krishna Rao submitted a petition requesting that orders may be issued to the Dy Commr to adjust the interest also from Srinivasa Rao's share of revenue of the Tirumakalli Village. This petition was forwarded to the Dy Commr for disposal & endorsement to petr.

4 The point for orders now is whether it is necessary to issue a fresh order directing that the amount of interest, which it is stated that Srinivasa has agreed to pay, should be recovered from Srinivasa Rao's share of the revenue of Tirumakalli Village. No such order seems necessary. As the amount due by Srinivasa Rao has been fixed at Rs1000 in the G.O. 18.5.1912 any sum which he agrees to pay as interest

Sir.

In acknowledging with thanks the receipt of your office Memorandum No R 2666/G.F. dated the 30th October last intimating that the short-credit of Rs 1008 omitted to be adjusted by Mr. T. Srinivasa Rao in connection with the mismanagement of Inam Jirunalley village in the Hunsur Taluk Mysore, I have the honor to state that Mr. T. Srinivasa Rao referred to above has in his subsequent petition to the Sub Divisional Officer, Mysore has agreed to bear interest at 5% on the amount which he fails to remit towards the adjustment of our loan, and this fact has been reported to you by the Dy Comm of Mysore, (Letter No 423 dated 24-2-1912) with a recommendation that the interest claimed by the members of the III Branch of Thippia's Family (Sanna Rao's Branch) and admitted by Mr. Srinivasa Rao of his own accord might be be favourably considered, as the endorsement suggests that only orders for the adjustment of the rents only have been passed, I beg that you may be good as to issue early orders to the Commissioner for the adjustment of interest also for which our Branch is rightly entitled.
